As the days grow longer and the sun graces us with its warmth, our community has making the most of the pleasant weather. With pleasure shared at our lunch outings and vibrant activities bringing us together, this season has truly been one to enjoy.

embraced the joys of the season. It's wonderful to see everyone out and about,

We recently celebrated Mother's Day in style, where all the ladies were treated to something special, a lovely gesture to honour their kindness and strength. The smiles and appreciation made it a truly heartwarming occasion.

Meaningful Activities Our Antiques Club has welcomed an enthusiastic crowd, with members diving into fascinating discussions on treasured artefacts and personal histories. The shared passion for storytelling and learning continues to make each gathering a delight.
